

FLETCHER WARNED MANY TIMES BY ADMIRAL SIMS

Reason for Removal of Officer in Breach of Discipline in Committee

WASHINGTON, March 27.—(By Associated Press.)—The House committee on naval affairs today reported that Admiral Sims had warned Fletcher many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Sims, who was removed from command of the fleet, was reported to have been warned by Admiral Fletcher many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Admiral Fletcher was reported to have been warned by Admiral Sims many times before his removal from command of the fleet.

Getting Blown Up Is Favorite Sport

CHICAGO, March 27.—(By Associated Press.)—A habit in the family of Walter E. Richards, Sr., local man, Richards, Jr., was internally injured in a tank explosion in a Philadelphia chemical works in 1924, but is alive and well today.

Richards himself, 16, received a fractured skull and internal injuries in the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, 1938.

Walter E. Richards, Jr., 18, his son, has just been discharged from the navy as the result of injuries received in a boiler explosion on a United States destroyer in South American waters some months ago.

Young Richards is now recovering and ready to enter civilian work.

Richards himself, 16, received a fractured skull and internal injuries in the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, 1938.

Walter E. Richards, Jr., 18, his son, has just been discharged from the navy as the result of injuries received in a boiler explosion on a United States destroyer in South American waters some months ago.

Young Richards is now recovering and ready to enter civilian work.

Richards himself, 16, received a fractured skull and internal injuries in the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, 1938.

Walter E. Richards, Jr., 18, his son, has just been discharged from the navy as the result of injuries received in a boiler explosion on a United States destroyer in South American waters some months ago.

Young Richards is now recovering and ready to enter civilian work.

Richards himself, 16, received a fractured skull and internal injuries in the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, 1938.

Walter E. Richards, Jr., 18, his son, has just been discharged from the navy as the result of injuries received in a boiler explosion on a United States destroyer in South American waters some months ago.

Young Richards is now recovering and ready to enter civilian work.

Richards himself, 16, received a fractured skull and internal injuries in the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, 1938.

Walter E. Richards, Jr., 18, his son, has just been discharged from the navy as the result of injuries received in a boiler explosion on a United States destroyer in South American waters some months ago.

Young Richards is now recovering and ready to enter civilian work.

Richards himself, 16, received a fractured skull and internal injuries in the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, 1938.

Walter E. Richards, Jr., 18, his son, has just been discharged from the navy as the result of injuries received in a boiler explosion on a United States destroyer in South American waters some months ago.

HUGE REWARD OFFERED FOR KIDNAPER'S ARREST

Lexington Capitalist Says He Has Wronged No Man and That Abduction Was Work of Professionals

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 27.—A reward of $2,000 for the arrest and conviction of the kidnaper of his twelve-year-old son Paul was offered tonight by E. R. Little, Lexington capitalist.

"I will give $2,000 to any man who will prove that I owe him any money," Little declared. "I do not know of anything that I have done which could possibly have wronged any man."

Little declared that the abduction of his son was the work of professionals. He said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Little said he had no personal property and that the kidnapping was taking place in the city of Lexington.

Palm Sunday Marks Final Week of Lent

Special Services in Local Churches in Observance of Day

Episcopal and Catholic churches of the city will today observe one of the principal days on the church calendar, Palm Sunday. The last week of Lent will be observed in and special services held in most of the churches.

Holy Week will be observed with daily services and the usual special services will be held on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

A special musical service will be given in All Saints' church on Good Friday night at 8:15 o'clock. The church choir of sixty men and boys will be assisted by two prominent soloists from New York City in the beautiful and impressive sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary."

The tenor solo parts will be sung by Charles Trosell, of Grace Episcopal church, and Norman J. L. Jones, of the church of the Holy Trinity.

The usual impressive ceremonies will be held during the week by the Catholic churches. On Thursday, at Sacred Heart Cathedral, there will be celebrated High Mass in honor of the Ascension of the day of the Last Supper. In the evening at 8 o'clock will be held the Service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Friday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Saturday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Sunday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Monday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Tuesday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Wednesday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Thursday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Friday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Saturday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Sunday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Monday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Tuesday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

On Wednesday, the church of the Holy Trinity will hold a service of the Word, with the reading of the Gospels and the singing of the hymns.

INDIANAPOLIS INSTITUTES CAMPAIGN OF COURTESY

People Remember a City by the Man in Which They Are Treated

INDIANAPOLIS, March 27.—As a stranger in a city, did you ever ask a policeman to direct you to the First National Bank Building, and have him jerk his thumb over his shoulder and mumble something, his face an apparent blank?

Of course you have. But Indianapolis, policeman, taxicab drivers, street car employees, messenger boys, clerks, Boy Scouts, and everyone else for that matter, have enrolled for a campaign of instruction in courtesy, which will be completed by the time the world convention of advertisers takes place here, June 6 to 10.

People remember a city by the courtesy or indifference shown them, according to the Indianapolis convention board, in charge of the courtesy campaign, and to make sure that everyone will be reached, the board is using newspaper advertising to get its message before the people.

TO SUE WOOD MANAGER

Alabama Citizen Resents Statement That He Condemned State Campaign

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 27.—J. O. Thompson, former Roosevelt referee in Alabama, tonight announced he would sue the manager of the Alabama Wood campaign, based on a statement recently sent to Alabama by Mr. Thompson in which he said Mr. Thompson was conducting the Wood campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

Thompson said he had been asked to conduct the Wood campaign in Alabama and in a formal statement sent to the Alabama Wood campaign board, he had said he was conducting the campaign "without authority."

DEPARTED WIFE'S SPIRIT FORBODE HIM TO MARRY

Outfit Board Information Results Suit for Damages at Instance of New York Widow

NEW YORK, March 27.—(By Associated Press.)—A departed wife, through the medium of a spirit, forbade her husband to marry again, and he would be liable for $50,000 damages, according to a suit filed in the New York court.

The suit was filed by the widow of a man who had been killed in a car accident. The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

The widow claimed that her husband's spirit had appeared to her and told her that she should not marry again.

TO ARGUE TAX LAW VALIDITY

Alabama Supreme Court Will Hear Counsel for State and Plaintiff

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 27.—(By Associated Press.)—The Alabama Supreme Court will today hear arguments in a case which will test the validity of the income tax law of Alabama, which was held unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court last week.

The case was brought by a group of taxpayers who claimed that the Alabama income tax law was unconstitutional. The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

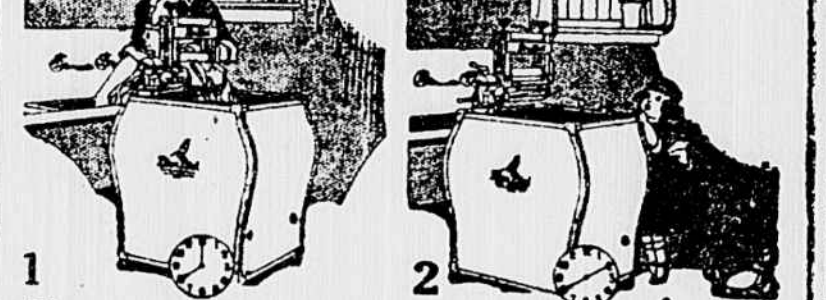

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

The case will be argued by the state and the taxpayers.

It's just fun!

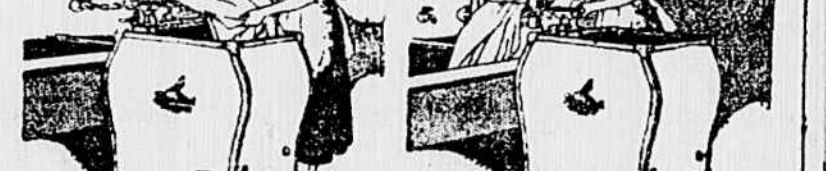

To have a BlueBird washing. Ask any woman who owns a BlueBird how much fun she gets out of hunting up every conceivable thing around the house that will go into the suds, just for the sheer joy of seeing it come out thoroughly clean, without the slightest work.

See for yourself—

1 The power driving wringer reverses to wring the clothes from the soaking water into the clothes washer tub.

2 Then the big copper tub swirls the water through the clothes seventy-two times a minute—they are clean in a jiffy.

3 Then wring from the washer tub into the rinsing water. The big 12" rolls adjust for daintiest garments or heaviest blankets.

4 Then the wringer swings around, wringing from rinsing to bluing water. All this wringing is done by motor. No work.

5 Then the wringer swings to wring the clothes from the bluing water into the basket, and BlueBird wash-hour is over.

6 Clothes are on the line by nine, washed without wear on you or wear on the clothes.

$7 down—balance monthly

If you knew this minute what a BlueBird would mean to you, you would be down to our store today, or on the phone now asking for a free demonstration. Why not find out at once, asking for a Free demonstration in your home to prove all this, which we are glad to make without obligation or expense. Make next washday a BlueBird wash-hour. Phone or call today.

See BlueBird on the Main Floor, or Phone Rand. 4141

EVERYTHING COSTS LESS AT WEISBERGER'S

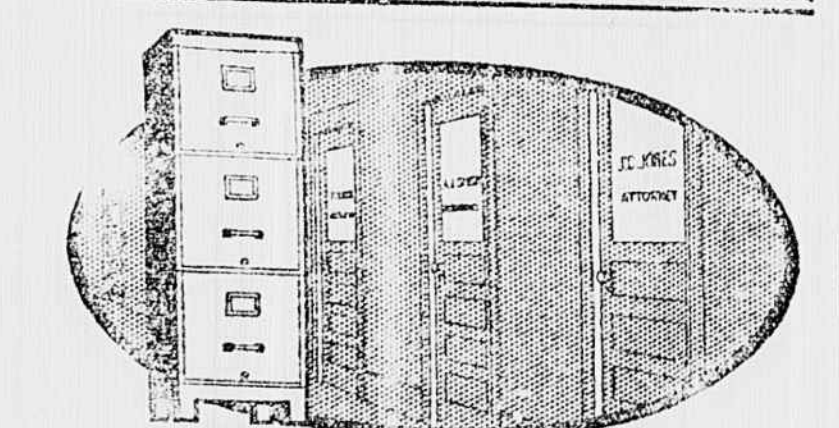

Richmond's Great Store

Congressman W. D. Upshaw

of Atlanta, Ga., will preach at

Laurel Street M. E. Church

at 8 o'clock tonight in place of Stockton Street Baptist Church, as formerly announced. This will give the people in Southwest Richmond an opportunity to hear the distinguished Congressman deliver one of his great addresses. The Congressman is regarded as one of the most forceful speakers of the South. He is a halo of sunshine, a dynamo of energy and an avalanche of eloquence—a cross between Billy Sunday and Sam Jones.

Fits Any Office

Any orderly arranged and adequately equipped office is a valuable asset to any business. Your choice of office equipment should be

GF Allsteel

GF Allsteel File Cabinet is the utmost in rigidity, safety, adaptability, economy.

Letter Files, Card Indexes, Filing Systems, Safes, Desks, Tables, Shelving and Counter Heights.

Call, write or phone for interesting facts about GF Allsteel Equipment.

The BELL Book and Stationery Co., 914 East Main Street, Tel. Randolph 720.

MILWARDS of NEW YORK

119 Broad St. E. Richmond, Va.

Model Suits

For Easter and for Spring

The Fashion Themes for the Season are exceptionally charming. Interpretations of the Mode are distinguished by their style beauty. Tailored perfection and Excellence of Quality. The approved materials are Poiret Twill, Gabardine and Tricot.

Very Specially Priced, $65.00

Call, write or phone for interesting facts about GF Allsteel Equipment.